

ABOUT CIRCLE OF LOVE

St. James' Settlement set up the Circle of Love Specialised Co-parenting Support Centre, with "Child-centered" as our principle. We provide one-stop co-parenting support services for the separated / divorced parents. By promoting the child-centered approach, we encourage parents to take up parental responsibility by maintaining peaceful and rational communication, supporting children to enjoy stable parental contact throughout the family changes, so as to facilitate their healthy development.

SERVICE CONTENTS

1. "CO-PARENTING" COUNSELLING / PARENTING COORDINATION SERVICE

To promote "Child-centered" concept among separated / divorced parents and children. To enhance cooperation between parents in "co-parenting" by strengthening their problem solving and parenting skills. To facilitate children to enjoy continuous love and support from parents and to have better adjustment resulting from parental separation / divorce.

Social workers will also provide parenting coordination service for separated / divorced parents, formulating and implementing co-parenting care plan for children on need basis.

2. SUPERVISED CHILDREN CONTACT EXCHANGE SERVICE

Social worker can supervise the child to meet with the non-residing parents and / or significant others in the centre or arrange related exchange service.

Co-parenting

3. "CHILD-CENTERED" / "CO-PARENTING" TRAININGS / WORKSHOP / GROUP

To support children with adjustment difficulties and emotional disturbances resulting from parental separation / divorce. To help parents understand the impact of parental separation / divorce on the children's well-being, to assist them experiencing their roles in "Child-centered" co-parenting, and to help parents effectively implement the co-parenting plan.

4. "CO-PARENTING" COMMUNITY EDUCATION SERVICE

To promote the concept of "Child-centered" co-parenting to the community through educational seminars, exhibitions and service promotion activities.
